The Gas Chambers of Agincourt?

So, the nasty little (?) false charity which calls itself the Campaign Against Anti-Semitism, has won it's first victory by bringing a private prosecution against Jez Turner under the ubiquitous Race Laws.

The CAA claims that Jez's speech which was a commemoration for the English troops murdered by Jewish terrorists in the late 1940's which included Jews bombing a hotel and lynching two British sergeants. Jez also quite rightly queried the legal status of the aggressive paramilitary police known as the Shomrim who Jez explained, pose as near as possible, in their uniforms and vehicles to look like our own British police.

Despite the fact that Jez's speech and two minute silence was interrupted by a mob of Jewish activists shouting "Kill him. Kill him" and despite the fact that the Crown Prosecution service found ' No case to answer, the ILLEGALLY FALSE CHARITY which the CAA is, was able to throw an unending amount of money to ensure Jez got jailed.

The CAA - a 'charity that refuses to name its Director of Finance!

The CAA claimed his speech insulted Jews. They claimed it would cause Jews to feel offended by his words (All of which were true).

And so after a trial that made a laughing stock of the British legal system, the Jewish CAA got what they wanted - a free speech advocate jailed for speaking the truth.

How long are the Jews going to be offended by uncomfortable historical truths? Forever it seems.

Well I'm sure I can find a Frenchman (lets call him Pierre La Snowflake) who today is deeply offended by the glorification of the English victory at the Battle of Agincourt.

Henry the Fifth's speech as written by Shakespeare is offensive in its tone. Pierre complains to the CATH (Campaign Against Truth in History) who bring a case against anyone who performs this play and get the complete works of Shakespeare banned as abusive and insulting to French, Spanish, Italian and of course Jewish (Shylock!) people.

Where and when will the real truth in history be ever allowed to be spoken?

How the Government has declared war on White English people!

England is in the middle of a profoundly disturbing social experiment. For the first time we see a Government and a System which is waging a campaign of aggressive discrimination against its indigenous population.

In the name of cultural diversity, Both Tory and Labour governments have attacked anything that smacks of Englishness. The mainstream public are treated with contempt, their rights ignored, their history trashed. In their own land, the English are being turned into second-class citizens.

This trend was highlighted recently by the case of Abigail Howarth, a bright teenager who applied for a training position with the Environment Agency in East Anglia but was turned down because she was too white and English. The post, which carries a £13,000 grant, was open only to ethnic minorities, including, ridiculously, the Scots, Welsh and Irish who are not 'ethnic minorities' - they are BRITISH!

Such social engineering was justified by the Agency on the grounds that minorities were under-represented in its workforce, the parrot cry used by bureaucrats throughout the public sector to justify bias against the English.

Though Abigail's case rightly caused outrage, it was not unique. This kind of reverse discrimination is now rife across the state machine, underwritten by the very English taxpayers who are the targets of institutional prejudice.

Although it is technically illegal to restrict jobs to certain ethnic groups, the racially fixated commissars have found a way round that problem by developing training schemes open only to minorities. Under the 1976 Race Relations Act it is permissible to use racial considerations in recruitment to trainee positions such as the one to which Abigail applied.

Such practices are dressed up as "positive action" to widen diversity and, in the words of one Labour council, "to overcome past discrimination". So HM Revenue and Customs offers work experience jobs, worth up to £15,900 a year pro-rata, to ethnic minority graduates, while the Museums Association has two-year ethnic minority apprenticeships.

Similarly, Birmingham City Council gives £16,000 a year to "black and minority ethnic individuals" in its "Positive Action Traineeship Scheme", and a £10,000 allowance to clerical trainees from "the Bangladeshi and Pakistani communities".

Discriminatory training schemes can also be found in ITV, the civil service and the NHS, which boasts "a management development programme specifically designed and tailored to the needs of black and minority ethnic midwives".

It was revealed not too long ago that Avon and Somerset Constabulary rejected 186 applications from white men on the grounds that they were already "over-represented" in the force. In the same way, Ex-London Mayor Ken Livingstone refused to endorse a series of nominations for the London Fire Authority because they were dominated by whites.

And whole towns are beginning to suffer state disapproval. Eighty administrative jobs in the Prison Service have recently been transferred from Corby in Northamptonshire to Leicester because, as the Home Office admitted, Corby's population is predominantly "white British", a terrible sin in our multicultural society.

It is a bitter irony that the Tory Government, which works itself into such a synthetic rage over racial prejudice, should practise overt discrimination on an epic scale. The remorseless focus on supporting minorities has led to a perverted ideology of anti-white racism.

Almost every interaction with any public service now leads to a detailed analysis of one's ethnic status. A vast race equality industry has been built up, filled with overpaid paper shufflers, consultants and advisers with little to do except invent new grievances.

There is an air of the Maoist permanent revolution about their activities. Since immigration now runs at probably one million people a year, the make-up of society is changing dramatically. So, in this climate of endless demographic upheaval, the race relations brigade will always be able to invent more work for itself.

Yet anti-English discrimination undermines the central plank of the propaganda for mass immigration. We are constantly told we need vast influxes of foreigners to boost our economy and fill vacancies but unemployment levels in immigrant communities are so high and skills so lacking that we need to reserve parts of our economy for them.

So if we have to spend a fortune on training schemes, why are we inviting hundreds of thousands of arrivals from the Third World and Eastern Europe here every year?

Economics have little to do with the issue. The Left in Britain have seized on mass immigration and multiculturalism as a battering ram to destroy the society they despise. They once sought to change our country through economic revolution. That failed with the Winter of Discontent and the downfall of communism. But demographic change through migration has proved far more damaging.

George Orwell once wrote: "England is perhaps the only great country whose intellectuals are ashamed of their own nationality. In Left-wing circles it is always felt that there is something slightly disgraceful in being an Englishman and that it is a duty to snigger at every English institution."

That is now precisely the mentality that predominates within the machinery of the British state. And our country is dying as a result.

THIS CULTURE OF INSANITY BACKED UP BY HATE LEGISLATION WHICH HAILS ANYONE WHO OPPOSES IT MEANS OUR OWN GOVERNMENT HAS DECLARED WAR AGAINST ALL WHITE BRITONS!

A Jewish man was riding on the subway reading a Middle East Arabic newspaper.

A friend of his, who happened to be riding in the same subway car, noticed and angrily called out, "Moshe, have you lost your mind?"

"Why are you reading an Arabic newspaper?"

Moshe replied: "I used to read Jewish newspapers, but what did I find? Jews being persecuted worldwide, Israel being attacked, Jews disappearing through assimilation and intermarriage, Jews living in poverty. So I switched to the Arabic newspaper. Now what do I find? Jews own all the banks, Jews control the media, Jews are all rich and powerful, Jews rule the world."

"Ahhh... The Arabic news is so much better!"

"Ex-President Obama gave a big speech from White House where he outlined his plan to quote 'degrade and ultimately destroy' the terror group ISIS. When asked how, he said, I'll build their website."

A farm worker greets Josef Stalin at his potato farm.

"Comrade Stalin, we have so many potatoes that, piled one on top of the other, they would reach all the way to God," the farmer excitedly tells his leader.

"But God does not exist," replies Stalin.

"Exactly," says the farmer. "Neither do the potatoes."

"If the EU applied to join the EU it would not be admitted" - on the grounds that it does not meet its own standards for democracy.

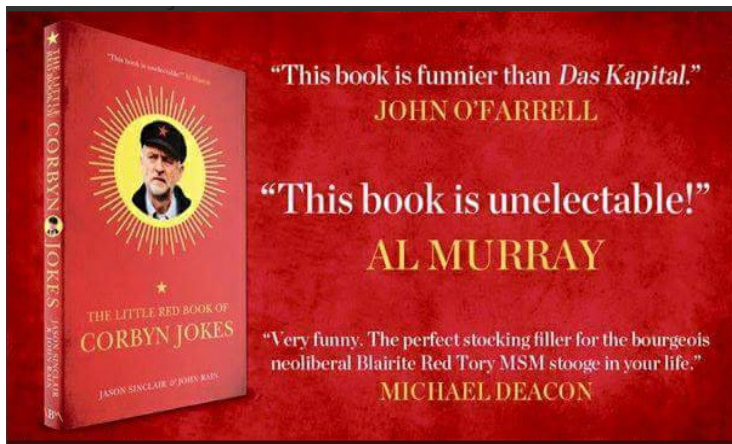

SOCIALISM: You have two cows. State takes one and give it to someone else.

COMMUNISM: You have two cows. State takes both of them and gives you milk.

FASCISM: You have two cows. State takes both of them and sell you milk.

CAPITALISM: You have two cows. You sell one and buy a bull.

EUROPEAN FEDERALISM: You have two cows which you cannot afford to keep because of milk imported from a member state with cheaper labour. So you apply for financial aid from the European Union to subsidise your cows and are granted enough to carry on working them. You then sell your milk at the original high price to some government-owned distributor which then dumps your milk onto the market at the price that drove you to subsidies to make Europe competitive."

ABOLISH THE RACE LAWS! By Eddy Morrison

We are being strangled in a deluge of legislation! The liberal-democrats knee jerk reaction to any and every problem is to pile on new laws. A good example of this was the Hungerford shooting incident. Terrible as it was, it brought in a whole barrow load of draconian laws to further curb anybody and everybody from even looking at a gun – for whatever reason, sport and self defence went out of the window. Everybody suffers because of one psychopath's actions. Again after the September 11th attack on the Twin Towers, the NOW/ZOG have used this an excuse to push through even more and amoral legislation all in the name of preventing terrorism. The list is endless. The underlying cause however is the same – the Liberal Consensus make a mistake – be it law and order, terrorism or race – they have screwed up – and instead of talking the real underlying problems – they react hysterically with bad and damaging legislation all designed to further curtail the freedom and liberate of the individual.

There is therefore a darker side to this. The powers that control our government will use anything to tighten the screws on our liberty as free Britons. Nowhere is this more profound than in the area of 'race relations'.

Immigration, integration and multi-racialism have been an unmitigated disaster for Great Britain. It has damaged our society almost irreparably and causes untold misery and misfortune to all the racial groups caught in the tornado of a multi-racial experiment gone wrong. Ethnic groups are artificially forced together. Cultures and traditions are destroyed. Heritage and identity – again of ALL races is being subsumed in a gross and dangerous Liberalist experiment. The immediate culprits are the White Liberal consensus, which runs the UK, whatever party they come from. Race is swept under the carpet and although they, and the British people know that the whole thing is a cataclysmic disaster of untold magnitude, they will not only NOT tackle the basic problem – multi-racialism has failed – they won't even admit it exists!

They lay the blame on us, the White Nationalists, and also on some abstract notion of "Institutionalised Racism". The true criminals in causing racial hatred in the United Kingdom are the politicians of the Old Party System. The Race Laws state that anybody LIKELY to do something, which could cause racial hatred, can be prosecuted. What is more likely to stir up racial hatred than forced integration and uncontrolled immigration? So the men and women who should be charged under their very own laws are the Liberals who allowed this situation to develop in the first place.

I do not hate other races. I think it is a negative thing. I understand how hatred can grow because we are getting a massive clash of cultures which is leaving Whites, Blacks and Asians in culture shock —nobody wins and everybody suffers. However, I digress – what of the Race Acts and Public Order Acts?

The Race Acts and Public Order Act (this last act was originally brought in 1936 to crush Mosley's Blackshirt movement) have gone from strength to strength. So much so that practically anything can fall foul of these truly immoral and terrible pieces of legislation. They are now worded as such that even the mildest discussion on the subject of race or immigration brings on not just the usual quacking of "racist!" but let's the Race Police in and White Nationalists are hauled off to do stretches at Her Majesty's leisure.

The most important thing however is the fact that gradually since 1968, when the Race Laws were first brought in, they have been used more and more to suppress our freedom of speech. Indeed, in one notorious trial a White Liberalistic judge made the telling statement – "the truth is no defence" (!!!). So we have come to this, they have come out into the open and using the shaky reasons that it is all in the good cause of 'preventing racial hatred', you can no longer speak the truth and or even truly open discuss the absolutely vital issue of race.

As White Nationalists we want to and will discuss and educate the British people on the subject of race and the disaster of multi-racialism. However we are confined to work within a set of ghastly unjust laws which have so many grey areas in them it is often extremely difficult to know if you are breaking the law or not.

So it is of PARAMOUNT importance that we put the legal abolition of the Race and Public Order laws as our premier propaganda agenda. All White Nationalist groups must fight to exert pressure to have the Race Laws abolished by parliament along with the Public Order Act. At the same time we must drive home to the White people of this country how we are tied down hand and foot by being robbed of our freedom of speech and action – and eventually they will even rob us of our freedom of thought. The PC Brigade is already at work on this latter point.

The fight for FREE SPEECH must continue and pick up pace until it becomes an avalanche of protest. The Liberal Consensus – a set of people completely blinded to reality – must be faced with a people completely fed up with their rights and freedoms being curtailed and ended.

Imagine the Race Acts abolished. Imagine what we could really tell the British people about multi-racialism. This will be a long and hard struggle but it must be fought and won. The start must be made by telling the British people – in article such as this, in leaflets, in posters and stickers, the Social Media, in demos, in petitions and a lot more areas to start that avalanche of protest rolling.

The Race and Public Order laws are an assault on our freedom as Britons. It is a freedom we have fought for centuries to win. Let us join together in a massive propaganda offensive to get these laws legally abolished, so that again TRUTH not LIES can be the watchword of our society.

I am just re-reading Dawkins 'The Greatest Show on earth'. I find it disturbing that he used as example of Evolutionists not being able to speak out openly.

He puts forward the hypothesis that "what if crowds of well-financed, politically muscular groups of Holocaust Deniers disrupted Evolutionist meetings, banning them or cancelling their meetings".

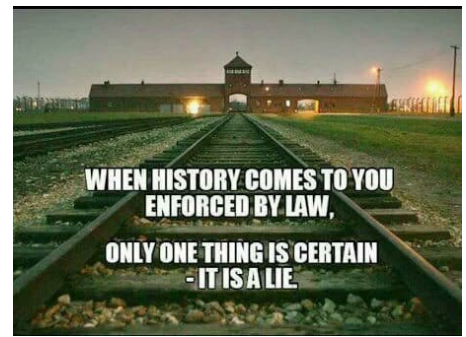

It's an unfortunate choice by Dawkins. Holocaust Deniers are not only regularly banned; have meetings cancelled; physically attacked and in many cases arrested and jailed for questioning the Holocaust

Dawkins should take a leaf out of Christopher Hitchens book. Hitch was a good friend of Dawkins and Hitch also believed Holocaust Deniers were wrong BUT as an advocate for free speech, Christopher Hitchens stood up in defence of Revisionist Historian David Irving who was arrested in Austria for 'holocaust denial'. Hitchens made his support for Irving's right to speak global.

Dawkins should remember that Christopher stood by the oft quoted "I may not believe in what you say but I'll defend to the death, your right to say it".

Pity instead that Dawkins parades out those questioning the details of the Holocaust as regular whipping boys to garner support for Evolutionists right of free speech.

The word 'hypocritical' springs to mind.

What's in a word?

Plutocracy

Plutocracy (or Plutarchy), is a form of oligarchy and defines a society ruled or controlled by the small minority of the wealthiest citizens. The first known use of the term was in 1631. Unlike systems such as democracy, capitalism, socialism or anarchism, plutocracy is not rooted in an established political philosophy. The concept of plutocracy may be advocated by the wealthy classes of a society in an indirect or surreptitious fashion, though the term itself is almost always used in a pejorative sense.

NOW WHERE DOES THAT REMIND YOU OF?

With the British Nationalist scene in complete disarray at a golden moment when White Nationalists are marching ever stronger both in Europe and the USA, it is time for us to heal the troubles of the past and start to build bridges instead of barriers.

The National Front is the oldest serving vehicle of White Nationalism.

The NF are an umbrella that ALL British Nationalists can come under.

Let us forget old fall-outs, grudges and petty problems and extend a welcome to our Comrades now in other groups and parties no matter the problems of the past.

In the face of a World Enemy set on the destruction of the White Race, all division is but foolishness

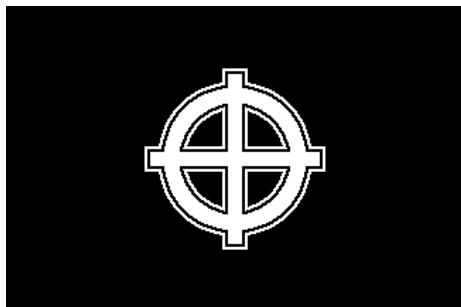

1967 is now a long time away, but just as we did then we must do so again

- rally all British Nationalists – forget past differences – shake hands not shake fists.....

and let us come together again as one..... and make a great British Nationalist Movement!

As a great man once said -

"When human hearts break and human souls despair, then from the twilight of the past the great conquerors of distress and care, of disgrace and misery, of spiritual slavery and physical compulsion, look down upon them and hold out their eternal hands to despairing mortals! Woe to the people that is ashamed to take them!"

"I believe our flag is more than just cloth and ink. It is a universally recognized symbol that stands for liberty, and freedom. It is the history of our nation, and it's marked by the blood of those who died defending it. "

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir,
Donald Trump has done the right thing in putting tariffs on America Steel imports. Why after all import something you can make yourself? The USA's steel industry is vital if the USA is to make anything at all let alone for a defence industry.

The purpose of trade is to get something you need in exchange for something you have a surplus of; not to make profits for global corporations. The Trump sanctions are a step in the right-direction of re-ordering 'Free Trade' in which the same goods travel in both directions, to one of fair trade in which nations mutually trade with each other for their own benefit.

Why should we for instance import Chinese lamb -if they did hypothetically exported it- and put the Welsh farmers out of business because it was cheaper? Such trade is not 'Free' but is actually economic warfare and leads to disaster and eventual war.

Fair trade is the new way of the future in which trade could be conducted by barter and leave out the middleman bankers and multi-national corporations. That is why they hate it so much - because it will lead to the end of the NWO and all the peoples of the world's liberation. Hail the nationalist new dawn!.

Milton Ellis (Newtown).

The tragedy of a Woman Blackshirt - the story of Lucillia Reeve

Lucillia Reeve was born in March 1889 and began her working life as a domestic servant. She was committed to self education and with the encouragement of her mother she went on to work her way through agricultural college. This in turn led to her becoming the land agent for Lord Walsingham's Merton Estate which covered a great tract of Breckland. She was possibly the first woman to hold such a post. Her spirit of independence and honesty came to the fore in the wake of the First World War. She campaigned for a proper war memorial for the dead of the area, instead of just a small wall plaque in the local church. She raised the money from the villagers and on Armistice Day 1919 unveiled a fitting memorial to the sacrifice of a generation.

As agriculture declined in the 1930's tenanted farms on the Merton Estate fell vacant. At her instigation new enterprises were introduced to make use of the land such as large scale rearing of ducklings for the table. In 1935, she noticed an advert. for a Mosley meeting in Swaffham. She decided to attend with the intention of heckling. Although this is how she began the evening, by the time Mosley had explained his case, she was entirely won over. She joined the Blackshirts and by 1937 was adopted as British Union candidate for South West Norfolk.

The following year she took on one of the estate farms. One of her farming methods was to twice plough in the weeds with a covering crop as a cheap way to sustain soil nutrients (surely an early example of "green" farming).

Writing in the Blackshirt she drew attention to the men "clad in corduroy trousers and open necked shirts returning from the harvest fields-who were in fact the unemployed miners and factory workers who should be employed making the farm implements needed to restore the land; and who eat meat from the Argentine and eggs from China, because international finance must flourish. My prayers for myself were stopped by a wave of anger that these things should be, and I vowed anew that never should my labours for British Union slacken until we had a restored British agriculture, and all the men should be employed. We have the land, and we have the men, and we must see to it that something is done".

In May 1940 her house was surrounded by men with guns. An all day interrogation followed. Despite her campaigning for the Mosley Peace Campaign she was not regarded as a threat to national security. As a result she was allowed home. Her pet dog, to which she was much attached, had been stolen by one of the armed guards, no doubt because he thought, that where she was going she would not need it. In 1941 her land was requisitioned for military manoeuvres, and all her work must have seemed in vain.

After the war she had hoped that all would be returned to her. It was not to be. The government decided to make her home, now the Stanford Battle Area, a permanent fixture. The compensation offered by the War Ministry was that of pre-war values, which were derisory. This was the final straw for Miss Reeves and at the age of 61 she took her own life hanging herself in her barn, robbed of all hope.

When Nature and People Were One

Eyes shining bright in the Sun's light
When Nature and People were one
Listening to the forest at midnight
That's how our people began

Racing the salmon at day's break
Leaping with joy through the streams
Listening to Skalds in the days wake
Sleeping as one with our dreams

Standing so proud in the shield-wall
Knowing our gods watched to see
Their people so fearless of death's pall
Valkyrie taking our fallen and free

Gathering as one at the Solstice
Giving a life to the Sun
Watching the blood on the sax knife
When Nature and people are one

Now are the days of our weeping
Gone are the days of our sons
Deep in our blood they are sleeping
'Til Nature and people are one

Waiting our time for the horn sound
Lifting our weapons of war
Shoulder to shoulder we are bound
Gods wakened again from their Tor

One day we will stand proud and strong
When people and Nature are one

Three ministers ' meet anti-Brexit group Best for Britain' that is seeking a second referendum

Three ministers have held talks with an anti-Brexit campaign group that wants them to back a second EU referendum in defiance of the Government, it has been claimed.

The Telegraph understands that the Best for Britain group has held a series of talks with Remain-supporting ministers and MPs to encourage them to oppose Theresa May.

It comes after Phillip Lee, a justice minister who reportedly held talks with Best For Britain, became the first member of the Government to resign over Mrs May's Brexit policy recently.

Conservative sources told the Telegraph four more junior ministers were considering following Dr Lee by quitting their jobs as part of a co-coordinated plot to scupper Mrs May's Brexit plans that could also endanger her position as Prime Minister.

Best For Britain, which is funded by the billionaire financier George Soros, said it had been "working tirelessly" to secure a second referendum, targeting ministers and opposition MPs it believed were sympathetic to its cause.

The group claimed it had been in contact with Dr Lee before his unexpected resignation, which was communicated to the Prime Minister moments before she began what she had expected to be a straightforward Cabinet meeting.

Dr Lee used his resignation statement to call for a second EU referendum, and Best For Britain claimed it had been in contact with other ministers it believed to be sympathetic to a second referendum, including the Foreign Office minister Alistair Burt, the business minister Richard Harrington, the Northern Ireland minister Shailesh Vara and Rachel Maclean, a Parliamentary private secretary to Home Secretary Sajid Javid.

Mr Harrington and Ms Maclean denied having meetings or contact with Best For Britain.

The group has been targeting Remain-supporting MPs and using electoral data to try to convince them that they will increase support in their constituencies if they back a soft Brexit.

Eloise Todd, the chief executive of Best for Britain, said: "We have been speaking both to Government ministers and opposition MPs to make our case and lobby them on Brexit. We believe this is the wrong step for Britain and we are working tirelessly to make sure that we have a people's vote at the end of the process.

"Tory MPs hold the key. Our message to them is clear - listen to your constituents and vote against the Government."

Non - elected groups backed by Globalists such as the malevolent Soros (pictured above) are trying to overturn the democratic will of the British People.

British State Stooges take on "non-violent extremists" (They mean all of us...)
By Francis Carr Begbie
With acknowledgments to TheOccidentalObserver.com

In a long career filled with subversive, best-selling David Irving has now feathered his cap — as a poster boy for the British government's new foreign policy initiative. It is an accident he shares with several other British politicians. Minister Michael Gove has recently chosen to highlight our excellent education system. "David John" Cameron has chosen to highlight the fact that the British are not violent extremists. In his maiden speech, on dealing with non-violent extremists, he has chosen to highlight the fact that the British are not violent extremists. "When David Irving goes to court, it is not to defend the Holocaust, but to defend the right of the British people to be free to think and say what they do challenge what he says. But when an individual is convicted, it is not to prevent their nationalist ideology, but to ensure that they do not spread it to others. It is the most important grassroots social force in Britain today."
